Circuit Court.

Circuit court was still in session the first part of this week, and after finally clearing up all the dockets for the term adjourned "in course." The regular panel of petit jurors was discharged on Saturday with the understanding that if a jury was absolutely essential thereafter for any of the one or two cases then yet liable to be tried, that a picked jury could be called. Several divorce cases were tried on Saturday, and a decree for plaintiff in each of the following two cases was rendered, to-wit: Maude E. Hanna vs. William A. Hanna, and William Burns vs. Sarah E. Burns. In the Hanna case the plaintiff's maiden name was restored to her, to-wit: Maude E. Hanna.

The case of John J. and America Brown vs. the estate of Martha Ball, deceased, M. D. Walker, administrator, was tried before a jury and a verdict given for the plaintiffs for $98. This suit was brought originally in the probate court for the sum of $121 claimed to be due the plaintiffs for board and washing furnished to Mrs. Martha Ball, deceased, during the last year of her life time, and the judgment in that court being appealed from the cause was tried anew upon its merits here. It seems that Mrs. Ball was Mrs. Brown's mother, and that the daughter and her husband, John Brown, having boarded the old lady and taken care of her during her old age thought they should be paid for so doing and the jury seemed to think so too.

In case of Rurre V. Littell vs. Corwin P. Littell, publication was ordered in Jeffersonian. Also in case of Amanda Adams vs. John W. Adams there was made of record the same entry.

John W. Stokes vs. John McNulty was continued on application of the defendant.

In case of Luella M. Hinds vs. William D. Hinds the defendant defaulted, and in the case of Burnice Bain, et al., vs. Kate Browning there was made of record the same entry.

In case of Jonas Kretzer vs. Moses W. Thompson, et al., was continued under agreement made last term, and in the case of H. L. Ward vs. Moses W. Thompson, et al., was made of record the same entry.

In case of Jeannette Gillenwater vs. John T. Hughes and Emeline Hughes the defendants filed answer. Continued at cost of defendant.

In case of William M. Rankin vs. William Sipes there was a judgment by default for the plaintiff for a renewal of the judgment.

Also the following entries were made, to-wit: Marian E. Melton vs. James F. Bridgeman, plaintiff dismissed suit. James F. Bridgeman vs. Marian Melton and John R. Melton, plaintiff dismissed suit.

Samuel Hughes vs. L. D. Boyles, for a promissory suit dismissed at defendant's cost.

Thomas C. Dungan vs. John Hall, defendant defaulted.

E. P. Hostetter vs. J. E. Cummins, judgment for plaintiff for $520.08 at 8 per cent.

John F. Oldfield vs. Theodore Riley, plaintiff filed cost bond, and also reply. Agreement cause referred to Hugh Montgomery as referee with instructions to report at next term. Cause continued.

William H. Richards, Guardian and Curator of the estate of James B. Hunkins, a minor vs. Ben F. Landrey, Albert J. Limpert, et al. Defendants Albert J. Limpert, Minnie Hill and John W. Hill default. Answer writ for Ben F. Landrey to any sheriff in Missouri.

Adrian F. Sherman, as Trustee in bankruptcy of estate of William Luckhardt vs. Geo. P. Luckhardt, Mrs. Geo. P. Luckhardt, et al. Plaintiff filed bill of exceptions which is made part of record.

Mary Freeman vs. W. S. Thompson, administrator of estate of Samuel Freeman, deceased. Plaintiff filed motion to strike out amended answer.

Henry Nabor, Hapla Johnson, et al. vs. William Heine and Fred Heine, Sr. Motion to dismiss sustained; cause dismissed.

John Rhodes vs. Mary Clift; motion to quash levy of execution sustained. Levy quashed. This case was docketed this term; it seemed that the sheriff had levied upon Mrs. Clift's household and advertised it for sale without notifying her of her exemptions, and this motion was for the purpose of having her said exemptions first set off before any sale of the land or any part thereof could be made.

Moses Quick vs. James Dawson; continued for want of notice of appeal.

L. I. Moore vs. M. D. Walker, administrator of estate of Martha Ball, deceased, trial was had and a verdict for plaintiff for full amount of claim, $23.80. This was for a grocery bill sold by Mr. Moore to both Mrs. Ball and her husband, William Ball, during their lifetime and was charged it to said Wm. Ball alone, but the jury thought that they ought both to be held for it, and so gave judgment against her estate for the amount. Judgment for plaintiff for $20. C. O. Proud vs. same; judgment for plaintiff for $30; B. W. Aiken vs. same; judgment for plaintiff for $85.

Pink Youman vs. Daniel Boswell. Spencer Boswell et al. Continued by agreement on motion for cost bond at cost of plaintiff.

Garst Scott Company vs. R. J. Taylor. Continued on motion to set aside judgment by default.

G. W. Ballenger vs. William Richey, Lizzie Richey, interpleader. Plaintiff in open court confesses interplea and judgment for interpleader on interplea.

State of Missouri vs. Giles Laughlin. Defendant files bill of exceptions.

Geo. S. Stephenson, Executor of estate of John F. Stephenson vs. John E. Taylor. Plaintiff files demurrer to answer.

Edward L. Bosley vs. David Knepper, plaintiff has leave to file interrogations on or before the first day of next term.

H. W. Montgomery vs. the garnishee in this case.

A. J. Johnson vs. A. D. Wilson and H. S. Shawson. Appeal from J. P. Costa retried.

Silas Carter vs. Chicago Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company. Damage. Judgment for $175 for plaintiff by agreement.

Geo. W. Quick vs. Sarah J. Smith, Adam Hahn, et al. Attachment. Continued.

William A. Taylor vs. E. J. Kellogg, Guardian. Appeal from probate court. Continued.

Frank Zachary vs. John Eddy and Lester C. Schufeldt. Settlement. Referred to Hugh Montgomery as referee.

State of Colorado vs. Kansas City, St. James & Council Bluffs Railroad Co. Taxes. Continued.

Sarah Taylor vs. The Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Craig, a corporation and R. M. Price, et al. Injunction. Decree of foreclosure for defendant and order of sale.

B. F. Williams vs. Charles F. Holly and the unknown heirs of Charles F. Holly, et al. Equity. Decree for plaintiff.

Carrie Hairo vs. William Haire. Divorce. Dismissed.

Etta Horton vs. Arthur L. Horton. Divorce. Dismissed.

Mary Yetter vs. Charles W. Yetter. Divorce. Plaintiff allowed $40 to cover suit money; $35 for support till January term.

State vs. Lewis Carellon and Amanda Smir; lascivious conduct; plead guilty, the former was given 120 days in jail and the latter 115 days.

A number of parties were each fined $25 for gambling; the court granted a stay of execution for 90 days, at which time fine and costs must be paid.

In the matter of Trust estate of Bank heirs. Catharine Galbraith, Trustee. The court recommended that improvements be made, and approved the first annual settlement; $50 attorney's fee, and $75 to trustee was allowed.

Tom McKee and family, of St. Joseph, passed Sunday in Oregon, the guests of C. D. Zook and family.

Cottonseed Meal for Pigs. We fed cotton seed meal to one lot of hogs that had not done well in another experiment, and they were ready for market, well finished, in 22 days. Cotton seed meal fed in large quantities or for long periods to death to hogs. Fed for a short time in small quantities, it is valuable to put hogs in good condition that are not doing well. We begin by feeding one-fourth pound of cotton seed a day per 1,000 pounds live weight of hogs, and increase each day to ten days, when we feed per day three pounds per 1,000 pounds live weight of hogs, mixing the meal with the other grain. This quantity of cotton seed can be profitably fed three to four weeks. Kansas Experiment Station Bulletin.

Who Wants a Home?

Having disposed of my interests in Oregon and having purchased property at Anadarko, O. T. I will sell my new 7-room residence, a fine cistern, handy cellar and a good large well built barn. Lot is 80x100, located in a quiet neighborhood, two blocks to court house. I have put no price on my home and will sell to the party giving me the most.

I will also sell on good easy terms

The normal temperature for September is 67.06 degrees, the normal rainfall 3.21 inches.

On the 1st of May last we were ahead on rain for the season beginning March 1, 1901, 5.14 inches on the 1st of June we were up 2.90 inches, on the 1st of July we were short 1.33 inches; let of August 3.30 inches; let of September 4.80 inches and now is short 4.86 inches.

The mean temperature of the month of August, 1901, was 76.5 which is just normal. The highest was 99 degrees on the 1st and the lowest 57 degrees on the 31st. The highest temperature recorded here was 108 degrees on the 2nd day; in 1874, it came within a small fraction of the same degree on the 11th day. The lowest temperature in August was 37 on the 29th day in 1883. There was frost and ice on that morning and many tender plants were frozen. The minimum of August is often 5 to 10 degrees lower than this year. It was near frost in 1835 and 1836, and under 50 in 1861, 1865, '71, '76, '80, '85, '87, '88, '91, '92, '93. The maximum has been above 100 in 1857, '60, '61, '63, '64, '73, '74, '81, '86, '87, '94, '97. The highest mean temperature for the month was 81.9 in 1881, and the lowest 69.3 in 1855.

The rainfall for August was 2.73 inches, which is 1.56 inches below normal. The greatest amount in one day was 1.50 inches on the 11th. There were 10 days on which rain fell exceeding one hundredth of an inch. The amount of rain fall for August varies greatly. In 1855 it was 8.50 inches and in 1894, '96, in 1870 and '95 it exceeded 8 inches and in 1878, '92, '95, it was 1-1/2 to one inch.
